Permanent Lease of the Cincinnati Southern.

The Cincinnati Gazette says Mr. E. A. Ferguson has drafted a permanent lease of the Cincinnati Southern, which will be submitted to the trusless at their monthly meeting next Monday, October 4th. It will then be made public and discussed, as the present lease was, before edoption by the trustees, after which bids will be received for the permanent lesse of the road under it, and when the contract is made the road will pass out of the hands of the trustees. He says that it was the sense of the trustees, and is his own judgment, that the matter, which is of great importance, should have free and full consideration, and to this end action will be postponed until after the excitement attending the October elections is over. The Cincinnati Southern is well and kindly thought of by the railway men and merchants of the east, and the enterprise and good sense of the city in building it is much praised. He knew of no combination formed to take the road, but supposed there would be a number of bids after the railroad men had time to study the ZODONT. Don't spare it. Brush terms of the lease.
